

Lecture 1 Summary

LO. Describe types and categories of alternative investments.

Traditional investments refer to long-only positions in stocks, bonds, and cash. All other investments are classified as alternative investments.

Alternative investments can be divided into three main categories:

- Private capital – Includes private equity and private debt
- Real assets – Includes real estate, infrastructure, natural resources and others
- Hedge funds